Clergy Corner

Dear Members of St. Mary's Parish Family,

"Where your treasure is, there also will your heart be."

This Sunday's readings invite us into the heart of Christian hope and vigilant faith. Jesus tells his disciples to be like servants who await their master's return—ready, watchful, and faithful. The author of Hebrews reminds us of Abraham's faith: a trust in God that reached beyond what was seen.

As we ponder this call to live with eyes fixed on heaven, we are drawn beautifully into the celebration of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary on August 15—a Holy Day of Obligation for Catholics in the United States.

The Assumption reminds us that Mary, our Mother, has already reached the goal we hope for: body and soul in the glory of heaven. Her life was one of faithful watchfulness, just like the servants in this Sunday's Gospel. From her "yes" at the Annunciation to her presence at the foot of the Cross, Mary lived her life in complete trust in God's promise.

Mary's Assumption is not just about her—it's about us. It is a sign of hope for the entire Church, assuring us that where she has gone, we too are called to follow. Just as Abraham looked forward to a "city with foundations," we, too, await a kingdom that cannot be shaken. And Mary shows us the way.

At St. Mary's, we celebrate her not just as our patroness, but as our model in faith, our companion in hope, and our intercessor in heaven. Let us honor her Assumption by deepening our own faith, by staying vigilant in prayer, and by living with our eyes fixed not just on the present, but on the eternal.

Mary, Assumed into Heaven – pray for us!
