Clergy Corner

Dear Members of St. Mary's Parish Family,

Last Sunday we celebrated the Epiphany, when the Infant Jesus was visited by the Magi. This Sunday we have entered Ordinary Time and in the Gospel we are again presented with the adult Jesus. The Sundays and weeks of Ordinary Time lead us through the life of Christ, emphasizing his ministry and teachings so that we can mature as his disciples. With this in mind, it makes sense that we should begin Ordinary Time by returning to the beginning of Jesus' public ministry and his calling of the first disciples. In fact, our readings this Sunday in general have a theme of vocation, of hearing the call of the Lord and responding properly.

In our First Reading, the prophet Samuel is only a boy and is hearing the voice of God for the first time. This whole scene is rich with lessons on spiritual life. Before we consider these lessons, we need to remember that, while perhaps most of us won't receive the rare gift of hearing the audible voice of God, all of us can hear God speak to us in various ways, especially through Sacred Scripture, the teaching of the Church, our conscience, and our own prayer.

Looking briefly at the Gospel reading, it has a very similar theme of responding to God's call. Just as Samuel required the advice of Eli, the first disciples needed help from trusted people in order to follow the Lord. John the Baptist points out Jesus as the Lamb of God to his disciples, who follow Jesus as a result.

Jesus, good Shepherd, help us to hear your voice clearly in the midst of so many other voices. Increase our desire for your presence and your words. Give us the help we need in following you, and use us to bring others to you. Amen.
