Clergy Corner

Dear Members of St. Mary's Parish Family,

I wish you all a very happy Easter!

Before I begin the Easter message, I would like to express my joy over the successful of our parish mission. Our mission preacher, Fr. Jewel Aytona, did a wonderful job on his talks as well as hearing confessions for long hours. It was very apt that he took the theme of his mission about the Eucharist, as this is the year of Eucharistic Revival.

Easter is more than just a holiday; it is a sacred time when we commemorate the resurrection of Jesus Christ and rejoice in the promise of new life and eternal hope.

As we exchange greetings of "HAPPY EASTER", let us also take a moment to contemplate the deeper meaning behind these words. Easter is a celebration of rebirth and renewal, a time when we are invited to cast aside our burdens and embrace the possibility of transformation. Let us come together as a community, united in faith and solidarity, to rejoice in the triumph of light over darkness, hope over despair, and love over fear. May the spirit of Easter fill our hearts with joy, peace, and gratitude, and may it inspire us to live each day with compassion, kindness, and forgiveness.

As we embark on this journey of faith, let us remember that the Easter story is not confined to a single day but resonates throughout the year, guiding us through life's challenges and illuminating our path with hope.

May the blessings of Easter be upon you and your loved ones, filling your lives with abundant joy, renewed faith, and boundless love.

Wishing you all again a Blessed and Happy Easter!

Fr. George Thadathil, CMI
Pastor
