Clergy Corner

Dear Members of St. Mary's Parish Family,

Yesterday our 2nd graders received their First Holy Communion. Congratulations to each one of them. I would also like to express my sincere gratitude to all who helped form them.

As we all know the month of May is specially dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary. May the intercession of Mary help us.

On this Sixth Sunday of Easter, we are reminded of the profound love that binds us together as members of the Body of Christ. In today's readings, we are called to reflect on the transformative power of love and its ability to unite us as one community.

In the Gospel passage, Jesus speaks to His disciples about the commandment of love, emphasizing the importance of loving one another just as He has loved us. This radical love, grounded in selflessness and compassion, is not merely a suggestion but a commandment that lies at the heart of our Christian faith.

In our world today, marked by division and discord, the call to love one another can sometimes seem daunting. Yet, it is precisely in times of uncertainty and strife that our commitment to love becomes all the more essential. As followers of Christ, we are called to be beacons of love and hope, reaching out to all with open hearts and welcoming arms.

As we reflect on the theme of love this Sunday, let us consider how we can embody the love of Christ in our daily lives. Let us strive to be agents of reconciliation and peace, seeking opportunities to build bridges and foster understanding among all God's children.

May this Sixth Sunday of Easter inspire us to embrace the commandment of love with courage and conviction, knowing that through our love for one another, we bear witness to the transformative power of the Gospel.
